- uploading the filled-out parental consent form (this is only applicable to Artists under 18 years of age at the date of competition entry);

Any Artwork submitted after the Closing Date shall not be a Valid Entry under any circumstances. EURid reserves the right to disqualify any Artwork or Artist that, at its sole discretion or the sole discretion of the jury members, violates the Terms and Conditions in any way, or any applicable laws, statutes, rules, regulations or policies of the European Union or the country of legal residency of the Artist.

Each Artist having submitted a Valid Entry will be informed by email (via artcompetition@eurid.eu) by EURid of the registration number allocated to the Artwork and any relevant next steps in the competition.

EURid reserves the right, at its absolute discretion, to extend the Closing Date of the competition for a reasonable period of time and any such extended date shall be the new closing date for the purposes of these Terms and Conditions.

EURid reserves the right to exclude an Artist if their Artwork for any reason, or in any circumstances surrounding the display or publication of the Artwork, appears to EURid to expose EURid to the risk of legal proceedings, reputational damage or other potential loss, or if the Artwork is in any way detrimental to EURid's image.

7. Jury Evaluation

All Valid Entries will be assessed by the jury, which is composed of three (3) members who are experts in various fields of the graphic design and creative industries (the "Jury"). Each Jury member will independently assess the Artworks in their original electronic form (the "Jury Evaluation"). The Jury members will be announced and published on the Website in a timely manner. EURid will designate one Jury member as the chair of the Jury (the "Jury Chair").

Each Jury member will have at least ten (10) days to assess the Artworks.

Each Jury member will assess each Artwork linked to a Valid Entry individually, by awarding points according to the assessment criteria below (the "Criteria"). Each of the Criteria shall be given equal weight. The assessment point scale for each criterion is from 0 to 10 points (with 10 being the best). It is possible to get a maximum of 40 points for one Artwork per Jury member.

Assessment Criteria

- Relevance: the Artwork is relevant to the competition's Theme;
- Quality: the Artwork is well conceived and skilfully executed;
- Originality: the Artwork goes beyond the usual visual imagery used to depict the Theme;
- Communication: the Artwork successfully communicates a discrete aspect of the Theme by employing design elements.

The Artworks will be assessed anonymously (i.e. each Jury member will only know the registration number of the Artwork without knowing the Artist's name or school).

All Artworks will be ranked by the Jury on the basis of the individual Jury members' scores and the subsequent discussions of the Jury, based on the judgment and expertise of the Jury as a whole. In case of deadlock among the Jury on the ranking of Artworks, the Jury Chair will have the casting vote.

EURid is responsible for providing the Jury with the Artworks for assessment, communication with the Jury and maintaining documentation.

The Jury's decision shall be final.

The winning Artists will be personally contacted (via the email address listed as part of the submission of their Artwork) by a EURid representative.

8. Prizes

From the shortlist of ten Artworks, the Jury will designate the prizes as follows:

- Winner with the highest number of points: 300 EUR EURid gift voucher;

Alternatively, the winners will be announced publicly via online communication channels.

Up to ten (10) winning Artworks will be exhibited (the “Exhibition”).

Selected Artworks will be displayed in the centre of Prague in autumn 2023. EURid will use reasonable endeavours to organise two more exhibitions in two more European cities in 2024.

10. Documentation

A catalogue will be prepared of the Exhibition where all winning Artworks will be presented and the registered Artworks will be mentioned, as well as the schools from which they originate.

In the event that printed documentation is produced by EURid, each winning Artist and their school will receive one (1) presentation product free of charge. The catalogue will also be available on the Website.

Artists shall allow the Artwork to be photographed and reproduced by EURid or any third party in all territories.

Credit/acknowledgement of the Artist's name will be given when the image is used by EURid. The Artist shall agree that EURid or any third party can alter the format of the Artwork for the purposes of the Exhibition, advertising, in print/online publications, and any other purpose deemed suitable by EURid or any third party.

12. Data protection

EURid and its subsidiaries will process personal data received in accordance with its Privacy Policy as available on <https://eurid.eu/en/other-information/privacy-policy/> and in accordance with applicable data protection regulations.

By completing the entry form, the Artist agrees to EURid and its subsidiaries collecting, retaining, processing, or otherwise utilising the Artist's personal data solely for the purposes of processing the Artist's entry to the competition, the promotion and administration of the competition, the Exhibition and any documentation that may be created. The Artist's personal information will not be shared with any third parties not directly involved in this competition or otherwise processed for alternative purposes without the Artist's consent.

The Artist has the right to request access to, correction, or removal of their data by contacting EURid at the address mentioned on the first page of these Terms and Conditions or www.eurid.eu.

13. Responsibilities of the Artists

The Artists shall be responsible for all costs associated with creating the Artwork.

The winning Artists are responsible for presenting receipts for the redemption of the EURid vouchers by 30 November 2023, otherwise the prize cannot be claimed.

By entering the competition and by providing any further information to EURid in relation to the competition, the Artist warrants that all such information supplied is truthful, accurate, and not misleading or otherwise incomplete.

14. Limitation of liability

Whilst EURid shall use reasonable skill and care in all circumstances in handling the Artworks, occasional damage to printed or electronic versions of Artworks may occur. EURid shall have no liability whatsoever for any loss, damage or destruction of the electronic or printed versions of the Artworks.

EURid does not accept any liability for lost, corrupted, or delayed entries or prizes, regardless of cause, and EURid does not guarantee that the systems or email address used by Artists to enter the competition will be available at all times.

EURid will not be liable for any damages or costs that are directly or indirectly related to the competition, the participation therein, or to its prizes. Nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall exclude our liability for death or personal injury arising from our negligence in relation to the competition or Exhibition.

15. Dispute Resolution

This competition and the above Terms and Conditions, as well as all questions relating thereto shall be governed by Belgian law and shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Belgium.
